

Washington School Summer Reading

2021-22

Everyone agrees that reading raises achievement, and research shows that students who read over the summer gain reading skills, while those who do not often slide backward, losing up to two months of what they learned while in school.

1st Grade

Incoming first graders should choose their summer reading books from the author names provided below and complete at least one row of Summer Bingo.

Syd Hoff
Lillian Hoban
Dr. Seuss
Arnold Lobel
Mercer Mayer
Laura Joffe Numeroff
Norman Bridwell
Else Helmelund Minark
Mo Willems
Anna Dewdney

2nd Grade

Incoming second graders should read the titles below and complete comprehensive sheets (Available in Elementary Office).

Mercy Watson to the Rescue by: Kate DiCamillo
Johnny Appleseed by: Eric Blair

3rd Grade

Incoming third graders should read the titles below and complete at least one row of Summer Bingo.

Cody and the Fountain of Happiness
By: Tricia Springstubb
Worst of Friends: Thomas Jefferson, John Adams & the True Story of an American Feud
By: Suzanne Jurmain & Larry Day

4th Grade

Incoming fourth graders should read the title below and complete at least one row of Summer Bingo.

Word of Mouse by: James Patterson & Chris Grabenstein

5th Grade

Incoming fifth graders should read the title below and complete at least one row of Summer Bingo.

Save Me a Seat by: Gita Varadarajan and Sarah Weeks

(Students in 2nd – 5th grade will need a physical copy of their summer reading books upon return to school)